

TORONTO STAR

MONDAY, JUNE 1, 2009 * thestar.com * MOSTLY CLOUDY. HIGH 18C (WEATHER MAP ON S10)

PRIMA BALLERINA'S FINAL BOW

RICK MADONIK/TORONTO STAR

National Ballet of Canada principal dancer Chan Hon Goh gets help collecting flowers from son Aveary Goh, 3, last night during her final curtain call after performing Giselle at the Four Seasons Centre for the Performing Arts. Goh, 40, who joined the National Ballet in 1988, decided to retire about a year ago after injuring her neck and spine in a car accident that occurred shortly after her son was born.